

Get Up-To-Date on the OneFPA Network

As FPA continues the listening tour to solicit stakeholder input on the OneFPA Network draft plan and vision, we want to continue to update members on what we are hearing. Be sure to check out the OneFPA Network Round-Up for March where you can learn about the concerns and questions we are receiving, the many listening tour stops with chapters, the volunteers taking part in task forces, and more.

Calling All Members: Consider Applying for the 2020 FPA Board of Directors

Are you passionate about building our profession and positioning the profession—and FPA—for a strong and vibrant future? If so, FPA would like to invite members to consider submitting an application for service on the FPA Board of Directors. Join a group of dedicated, dynamic FPA leaders who recognize the importance of today's actions on the future of the profession by contacting Board@OneFPA.org to receive a board application package. Complete applications are due Monday, June 3, 2019.

FPA is Supporting the Needs of Latino Financial Planners

FPA recently launched the FPA Latino Knowledge Circle to provide a home for FPA members who are of Hispanic-Latino descent. The new Knowledge Circle will help Latino financial planners collaborate, share ideas, engage in professional development and make connections. In collaboration with the Latino Leadership Institute, this online community will kickstart programming over the next 12-months by hosting a series of webinars designed to meet the needs of Latino planners. FPA members interested in joining the FPA Latino Knowledge Circle can sign-up today.
